Em D x 3

[v2]
Be careful where he's coming from
And what he's come for all along
Remember every snake oil sells the same

Don't believe a word he says
And think of all his love affairs
And think of heavy prices paid for fame

[p]
Please believe me when they come to stay
Please believe me when I truly say

[c]
Hard times will always leave you harder lines
They gonna make you hurt but'll make you wise
Hard times will always leave you harder lines
They gonna make you hurt but'll make you wise
